	Teko's Golden Beach Bungalows is located in Golden Beach in Karpaz Peninsula which is in the North East of Northern Cyprus. For travellers wanting to experience a different Cyprus, the uniqueness and beauty of the Karpaz Peninsula cannot be overrated. Karpaz Peninsula is almost totally free from heavy concentration of industry or people, making it one of the least polluted regions in Europe. Miles of rolling fields, endless beaches, wildlife, fantastic swimming, and the sound of the waves lulling you to sleep. The wildflowers that burst into colour in the spring are mesmerising the Karpaz peninsula has wonderful walks and is littered with ancient churches, monuments, remains and ruins. Part of the area is also now a designated National Park - good news for the quail and other birds living in the dunes, and the turtles who reportedly lay eggs on this wild, spectacular beach. Feral donkeys are allowed to roam free and nature is pretty much left alone.
